Lions charity golf tournament results

The Nobleton Lions Club congratulates the winners, and extends a big "thank you" to all participants and sponsors in their NobleKids Charity Golf Tournament. Funds raised will be used to support kids' programs in around the Nobleton area.

Best team honours went to Jim Kassam, Bill Bible, Ron Bible and Jack Purvis; Best Mixed Team was Tracy True, Scott Feaver, Bill Kelly and Mike Kassam; Ladies' Closest to the Pin winner was Wendy Castator; Ladies' Longest Drive was made by Heather Sutherland; Men's Closest to the Pin was Alain Chaput; and the Men's Longest Drive came from Alain Chaput.

Nobleton District Girl Guides

Guiding in Nobleton is in serious need of adult leaders, 18 years of age and older. All units require leaders — Sparks, who are five to six years of age; Brownies, seven to eight; Guides, nine to 11 years; and Pathfinders, 12 to 14 years.

If we do not have enough leaders, we will not be able to open our units. We need your help!

Guiding provides an opportunity for women to develop personal values, to be challenged, to make friends, to acquire leadership skills and to have fun. Please consider sharing your skills with us! We provide training for all Guiders.

Contact District Commissioner Donna Marchand at (905) 859-8088 today!

Our fall cookies will be arriving soon. We will be out and about in the community selling our chocolate-mint cookies. The price of $4 a box remains the same.

Please support Guiding in Nobleton. We need your help more than ever. If you would like to order some cookies, please contact Linda Boak at (905) 859-4528.

St. Paul's Church

Join us this evening (Wednesday) for our mid-week communion service at 7 p.m.

This service is ideal for those members of our community who can not make a regular worship service Sunday mornings. Everyone is welcome!

This Sunday (Oct. 8), we will be having our Thanksgiving Service at 9:45 a.m. Nursery care is provided during the worship service and Sunday school for all ages follows at 11 a.m.

The Men's Life (Bible study for men) and the Bible Alive (study for women) continue Thursday mornings at 9:30 a.m. We also have a prayer group that meets weekly.

For further information on any of our events, please contact the church office at (905) 859-0843.

Horticulture

A good turn out of members and friends to the Nobleton and King City Horticultural Society's September meeting enjoyed a quality flower show and excellent speaker.

Lorraine Mennen from Pathways to Perennials gave a very comprehensive talk about drought resistant and water-efficient-plants. She is a professional speaker and covered a long range of problems and solutions for the gardener in being water efficient in the garden. She invited the audience to visit the nursery's Web site for much more information — www.pathwaysstoperennials.com

Shelley Miller of Heritage Portraits then gave a slide show from the society's garden tour this past summer. The presentation was set to music and will make an excellent momento for the members to have. It was very well and professionally done. Copies are available for Heritage Portraits.

There were 128 entries by 12 exhibitors in the flower show and Nancy Hopkinson (Nobleton) won first place with most points. Amy Fazari (Nobleton) came in second and Jules Maule Ffinch (Caledon East) was third. Best in the decorative class was Amy Fazari for her most beautiful arrangement, Farmer's Market. And Amy Fazari also won best in the cultural class for her excellent floribunda rose. Congratulations to all.

The refreshment committee of Jean Keane with help from Rosemarie Huber, Marisa Figliano and Muade Featherstone out did themselves with coffee, tea and most delicious sweets.

The members and public are reminded of the society's upcoming plant sale Oct. 14 in King City. The sale will be held adjacent to the arena and the Senior's Centre in connection with the Lions auction sale. Plants can be dropped off at Blair Day, 29 Fisher St., across from the Senior's Centre. Call (905) 833-5173 for more information, or visit the society's Web site at www.altflora.com/nobleton

Seniors' euchre

Sept. 26 euchre winners were Barb Saisbury, Visian Hannah, Audrey MacDonald, Murray Kaake, Herb Workman, Helen Groombridge and Mary Steed. Lucky draw sinners were Gwen Potter, Clare Mills and Paula Lattanville.

The next euchre will be at 7:30 p.m. Oct. 10 at the Drop-in Centre. All are welcome. We have a bus going to Stage West Nov. 20 for an afternoon performance of the Geritol Follies. This is a delightful variety show put on by a group of seniors from Hamilton. For more information contact Herb at (905) 859-4636.

Nobleton Library

This Friday (Oct. 6) at 2:30 p.m., the Nobleton Library will be showing a movie and having a cup of tea for all area seniors. We will be doing this on the first Friday of each month. All are welcome.

The born to read and pre-school story hour programs are held each Monday, beginning at 10 a.m. There are still spaces available in each program. The pre-school story hour is for ages three to five at a cost of $25 per child. The born to read program is a half hour program for children up to two years of age, and donations are accepted to help offset program costs.

There will be a

Halloween crafts program at the library Oct. 14 from 2:30 to 4:30 p.m. at a cost of $8.50 per child. This program is geared for ages six to 13 (younger with a caregiver). We will make sic "spook-tacular" crafts. Pre-registration with payment is a must. We need six registrations to make the program run. Don't be disappointed!

Oct. 28, from 10:30 to 11:30 a.m., there will be a Halloween party for children aged five to 10 (younger with a caregiver). The cost is $3 per child and you must pre-register at the library. Wear your Halloween costume and come out and have some fun.

Oct 16 to 22 is Ontario Library Week. We will be having a candy counting contest for our patrons. All are welcome to come and see what your library has to offer.

October is also Canada's Library Month.

All the branches of the King Township Public Library will be closed this Monday (Oct. 9) for Thanksgiving.

Have a Safe and Happy Thanksgiving!
