

AMANDA COULTERA loving, beautiful daughter, sister and aunt, whose life was taken February 19, 2002.

*You can shed tears that she is gone,
Or you can smile because she has lived.*

*You can close your eyes and pray that she will come back,
Or you can open your eyes and see all the love she has left.*

*Your heart can be empty because you can't see her,
Or you can be full of love that you shared.*

*You can turn your back on tomorrow and live in yesterday,
Or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday.*

*You can remember her and only that she is gone,
Or you can cherish her memory and let it live on.*

*You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back,
Or you can do what she would want;*

*Smile, and open your eyes,
Love and go on.*

Forever loved and always remembered, Mom, Dad, James, Julie, Shane and Jessica

Cougars prove they can stand up to Alliston one goal from the five-minute advantage. Elliot connected from Jason McMann and Ronan.

"It's the playoffs," Ronan remarked later, reacting to his hat trick. "You do what you've got to do."

But despite the loss, he said the team's effort was a confidence builder.

Avoiding penalties will be key to any come back the guys can mount, Ronan added.

"We can definitely beat them," he said. We've got to stay out of the box."

"We dominate them five-on-five," he added. "We can beat them, no problem."

Waldrum was hoping that the third period effort can continue tomorrow, and be sustained for the whole match.

"They'll be in serious trouble if we can put together 60 minutes like that," he said. "It all depends on the players."

"If nothing else," he added, "we proved that if they're willing to pay the price, they can power their way back."

The fourth game in the series goes tomorrow night in Schomberg, starting at 8:15 p.m. If a fifth game is required, it will be Sunday at 7:30 p.m. in Alliston. Subsequent games are planned for Monday in Schomberg starting at 7:30 and a seventh game will be next Thursday (Feb. 22) in Alliston at 7:30 p.m.

Mitch Ronan got three goals in Sunday's outing in Alliston.

NOVICE KNIGHTS IN TOUGH AGAINST ORILLIA

The NobleKing novice rep Knights, sponsored by CIP Group, are down two games to none in their playoff series against the squad from Orillia. The local heroes are seen here holding their own in the opening match Saturday in King City, but Orillia was able to prevail in overtime for the 3-2 victory. The second game went Sunday in Orillia, and the Knights came out on the wrong end of a 5-2 final. The third game in the series goes Saturday at King City, starting at 1 p.m.

MIDGETS LOSE TO CAMPBELLFORD

The Schomberg midget rep Red Wings, sponsored by Borsa Brothers Excavating, faced the Campbellford Colts in the first game of their best-of-five playoff round Saturday, and the visiting Colts, last year's OMHA champs, won the match 5-3. Here, the Wings are seen trying to get something going in the opposition's end late in the contest.

Minor peewee Knights fall to Aurora

Submitted by NobleKing Minor Hockey Association

The NobleKing minor peewee rep Knights were unable to win more than one game in their opening OMHA playoffs series.

The Knights were only able to score once in the fourth game against Aurora, losing the match 4-1. They now move on to the round-robin series that starts the York Simcoe championships.

This team of 11-year olds will now play Richmond Hill and East Gwillimbury before the regional playoffs get underway. It will take four consecutive series victories under head coach Jim Younker, to capture the regional crown.

This year, in all 12 team divisions, every team gets a shot at winning the region crown except the eventual zone winner of the OMHA round, which moves on to play outside York Region. This means that the other 11 teams will all join in the playoffs for the region championship as these playoffs advance – depending upon when a team gets knocked out of the OMHA round.

Eight of nine NobleKing Knights teams were knocked out in the first OMHA playoff round, so we are all cheering for solid success at the region level as the season continues.
