REEVES: HELEN MARGARET- Passed away suddenly at the Royal Victoria Hospital in Barrie on Thursday, March 8th, 2007. Helen Reeves (Webb) of Innisfil in her 81st year was the beloved wife of Clifford Reeves of Innisfil. Dear mother of Douglas Reeves and his wife Pamela of Innisfil. Loving grandmother of Kyle. Pre-deceased by her parents Clifford and Dora Webb and brothers Milton and Edward Webb, all of Innisfil. A memorial service will be held at the Innisfil Funeral Home, 7910 Yonge Street in Stroud on Wednesday, March 14th, at 1:00 pm. As an expression of sympathy, memorial donations may be made to the Canadian Cancer Society or to the Heart and Stroke Foundation. Words of comfort may be forwarded to the family at helenreeves@innisfilfuneral-home.ca

708 DEATHS

FRIENDS
Friends, that's what we were. Highschool...cars...laughter... When I needed Serious side of him was what I found, He was a friend, better than all the rest, and most profound. My life was in tatters...he brought me joy and laughter. He was my big brother, he was a sounding board. He treated me with respect He treated me like family. He brought so much warmth to my heart. When I asked him, he was there. Always honest, always true, but kind and warm like a brother should be. Thank you for the honour of being your friend. Thank you for allowing me to share your family. Thank you for respecting me when I felt no one did. Thank you Vic... You are the best.

IN MEMORY OF the late Wilfred E. Ruston March 16, 1993
Years may come and go and many things have changed But always remembering you in silence and we often speak your name. Friends always, Gary, Tara, Brandon & Tasha Reynolds

POEM
You've been gone away, a year today. I can't believe it, or know what to say. I never thought there would be a time, Where you would not be at my side I ask myself Where are you now? As if I didn't know You are in the wind, the sun, a candle's glow All around me just like before But now it is different, like waves on a shore Soothing and soft, a murmur, a touch The caresses I miss so much I know you are there But in a different light I hope and pray with all my might That you hear me day and night How much I love you and feel you near How you miss me too in all the things I see and hear Your message to me now is so clear We will again be together someday but not here Our souls will forever be entwined It is our destiny I love you now and always will Sadly missed, but never forgotten My darling Victor Love Carol

In memory of my darling and special guy who passed away a year ago today, I miss you so much, your soulmate and wife forever, Carol
WE REMEMBER HIM By Clay
It is hard to imagine a year has gone by. He was the one, that special guy. He was one of those people some wished they could know. He was the one to say "just let it go" With talent and honour he did best what he knew. A wealth of knowledge and a friend true. For those who forced him away from his fame I can only hope they realize and hang their heads in shame. For now we can only remember his greatness, with hearts stirring and sorrow and sadness What could have been we'll never know. Respect and love from those who cared will always show. He's still around if you stop, look and listen. In the whisper of a sigh, a song, our hearts that miss him. He knows we love him and that we care. His spirit surrounds us, his essence still there. Take the time to reflect about someone or something each day. "I like it that way" is something he'd say.

WELL, IT'S WEDNESDAY don-cha know mist clears on a summer day hot weather, wet paint, be hell to pay sleep is needed but none will come we talk forever; await the sun waves lap up on a sea shelled beach next day's project just within reach a sphinx of Digbee, a pyramid of sand these are memories still at hand a someone who fixed my bike silently, just cuz a person who came when others would pause a tyrant? No. Gruff perhaps, set in his ways discouraged perennially; few hear what he says except some so fortunate, happened to be there a book tossed towards myself, explain it to me a smile, an internal nod. It is and shall be I struggle, despair...how is this done? a glance and a walk back; a big hammer- no gun WHACK! then is the moment for that he does wield knows what is right, knows the right feel a gun not for hire when others would tire a man of conviction my best friend a possible insight from one who would know a place set aside in peace; where something should grow always Victor Carl Lay 2nd August, 1957 - 16th March, 2006 no car is un-fixable; no goal unattainable

Wild visit Rams tonight

He added there was no particular reason for the let down.

"Hockey teams go through that," he observed. "That's why playoffs are series."

It was a much better outing for the club the day before. King was ahead 2-1 in the first period on the strength of power-play goals from Pollard and Bodley, with assists being notched by Kyle Baulne, Ryan Aikins, Zanette and Dickins.

The Rams briefly restored the tie early in the second, but King took back the lead with two quick goals a couple of minutes later, courtesy of Matt Marchese and Gidaro, with assists being gained by Alex Pozdrowski, Chris Martella, Pollard and Brendan Farrugia. The Rams were able to narrow things late in the frame, but the Wild took off with two more quick ones from the sticks of Farrugia and Bodley, with assists going to Baulne and Gidaro.

The Rams got aggressive in the late going, laying on some pretty stiff body checks, and it paid off in one more goal, but the Wild had no trouble holding on for the marbles.

Hampton later credited his men with the "best first period of the year."

But they ran into some penalty trouble in the second, taking several tripping citations in a row, but they tried to stay disciplined in the third.

He agreed the other team was trying to provoke his guys toward the end, but that's not very surprising.

"I'm not going to say I'd do anything different," he observed, noting he has a pretty young and fast team, so staying disciplined is key."That's my game plan."

The series is to resume with the fourth game tonight (Wednesday) at Ed Sackfield Arena at 311 Valleymede Dr., starting at 7:30 p.m., with the fifth game set for Friday at 6 p.m. Tom Graham Arena Complex at 1300 Elgin Mills Rd. East. If a sixth game is required, it will be at the arena in Nobleton Saturday, starting at 4 p.m., with the seventh match set for Sunday at Nobleton, starting at 3.

See the wildlife in the York Regional Forest

Meet a licensed Ontario trapper to learn about some of the wildlife that seasonally live in and pass through the York Regional Forest on March's monthly forest walk.

Pelts of a number of these animals will be on display. The walk is this Saturday (March 17) from 10 a.m. until noon at the Hollidge Tract of York Regional Forest at 16389 Highway 48 (east side of the road, between Vivian and Aurora Roads).

Admission is free. The 5,200-acre York Regional Forest plays host to free, themed forest walks every month at various locations in its 18 forest tract.

For more information on the forest walks, or to learn more about the York Regional Forest, call 1-877-464-9675, ext. 5256.
