We look forward to a visit from Rev. Tim Elliott April 29. He will be preaching at the 10:30 a.m. service.

He is the first of a number of former clergy and students who are coming back to celebrate with us during our 150th sesquicentennial year. Come and give him a warm welcome back.

Mark May 10 on your calendars, for this year's Women's Dinner extravaganza. Remember the scrumptious dessert to follow. Get your tickets early and bring all your daughters, sisters and friends.

Bring Mom to a beautiful Mother's Day choral evensong under Director of Music Michael Leach May 13 at 7:30 p.m.

The next adult discussion series, led by Judith Bishop and Leah Springford, begins April 15 from 9:15 to 10:15 a.m., between services, beginning with the topic "Riches." Guests are warmly welcomed.

All Saints' is a friendly church, located at 12935 Keele St. in King City, a few doors south of King Road.

The Eucharist is celebrated at 8 and 10:30 a.m. Sundays. Nursery care and Sunday school are provided during the 10:30 a.m. service. If you have a need, call the church office, or Rev. Nicola Skinner, at (905) 833-5432, or e-mail to allsaints@eol.ca

All Saints' giant rummage sale
The giant rummage sale is set for April 21, from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. at All Saints'. Additional parking is just east of Keele Street on Doctors Lane, and take the walkway to church.

The sale will feature a huge selection of white elephant items, clothing, toys, books, linens and furniture. Admission is $2 for shoppers and children get in free.

This is also an opportunity for students to earn their community service hours by helping with sale set-up, unpacking merchandise, hanging up clothing or sorting white elephant treasures. This activity will take place from April 17 to 20 from 9:30 a.m. until 4 p.m. and in the evenings from 7 to 9:30 p.m. There will also be a massive clean-up, starting 2 p.m., right after the sale.

To volunteer, phone Denise Whalley at 905-833-2654.

King City United Church, a vibrant, caring Christian church, invites all to Sunday school and the Sunday morning worship service led by Rev. Bob Biggar at 10 a.m., followed with fellowship and refreshments.

King City United Church is located one block south of King Road and one block east of Keele Street, 50 Elizabeth Grove.

This Sunday (April 15), the reflection is to be "Jesus, Is This Really You?", based on John 20:19-29. All are invited to gather in the parlour after worship to discuss this further.

A special thank you to all who contributed to our Easter flowers, including the memorial tributes.

The monthly contemporary service is to be this Sunday at 10 a.m.

When submitting talent money to the church, please indicate if the amount includes a repayment of seed money.

If you are not presently receiving the Observer and would like to, if you would like to renew your subscription or if you have a change of address, please call Virginia Wainman at (905) 884-2972. The yearly cost is $14, and payable by cheque to King City United Church, marked Observer.

The church will be hosting a community family concert April 21. It will start at 7:30 p.m. and feature Spirit.Calm (www.spirit.calm.com). Old-time gospel and contemporary Christian songs will be performed, with guitar, bass, keyboard and percussion. There will be an inspirational performance and interactive music celebrating God's gifts. Special guests will include the KCUC Family and Sunday School Choirs and Gospel Praise Band.

Tickets are $10 and $5 for students (children under 12 are free). Everyone is invited to enjoy this wonderful concert. Tickets are to be available at the door or contact Bill Schoenhardt at (905) 833-2254 or Peter Orr at (905) 859-0271.

The spring tea will take place at the church April 28 from 2 to 4 p.m. Tickets are $7, and are available from Shirley Scott or at the church.

It is the time to get ready for the third annual King City amazing race. The race is to take place June 2. The times and details are to follow. At this time, we are in need of volunteer host homes so we can set out our route. We are also in need of prize donations. If you are

See 'Annual' on page 15

The KCUC Praise Band will be continuing the joy of Easter, leading a contemporary service this Sunday at the church. Contemporary Christian music will celebrate the Word along with Pastor Bob's message. The service promises to be upbeat and multi-generational.

ONTARIO GOVERNMENT NOTICE

NOTICE OF PUBLIC INFORMATION CENTRE #1 GTA West Corridor - Environmental Assessment (EA) Terms of Reference

THE STUDY

The Ontario Ministry of Transportation is working to provide for the efficient movement of people and goods within the context of the province's Growth Plan for the Greater Golden Horseshoe. To support the policy directions in the Growth Plan, MTO has commenced the formal environmental assessment (EA) process for the GTA West Corridor. The purpose of this study is to examine long-term transportation problems and opportunities and consider alternative solutions to provide better linkages between Urban Growth Centres within the GTA West Corridor.

THE PROCESS

This study is being undertaken as an Individual EA in accordance with the Ontario Environmental Assessment Act. The first step of the process requires that a Terms of Reference (ToR) be prepared and submitted to the Minister of the Environment for approval. The ToR outlines how the EA study will be undertaken. A draft Terms of Reference is now available for review on the GTA West website (www.gta-west.com) and at local libraries. Interested persons are encouraged to review and comment on the draft ToR by May 18, 2007.

Once comments are received, the ToR will be revised and submitted to the Minister of the Environment for an approval decision. As part of the legislated approval process, the Minister of the Environment will initiate a formal public review of the ToR to assist in making an approval decision. During this formal review process, there will be a second opportunity to comment on the ToR.

CDS to hold annual rummage sale

It's that time of year again; time for the 31st annual rummage sale, hosted by The Country Day School.

This year's edition of the giant sale will be May 5, from 8 a.m. until 1 p.m. on the arena floor of the King City Community Centre.

The sale promises to include incredible bargains, ready for the taking.

Patrons of this remarkable event line up for hours to get first dibs on the sea of accessories, books, clothing, furniture, toys, housewares and sporting goods, etc., that fill the hall. This is a one-of-a-kind shopping experience not to be missed.

Tickets for the are available at the door for $2 apiece, while children under 12 and seniors get in for free.

The King City Community Centre is on Doctor's Lane (near Keele Street and King Road).

For more information, visit the CDS Community Events section at www.cds.on.ca, or phone (905) 833-1220.
