Nobleton United Church

Everyone is welcome to join with us at Kleinburg United Church on Islington Avenue this Sunday (May 6) at 9:30 a.m. to celebrate Kleinburg's 151st anniversary. The guest speaker will be Steve Falk, from the York Region Committee in support of the Stephen Lewis foundation. Steve is a member of Aurora United Church. Our regular minister Tim Dayfoot will be away as he is the guest speaker at Cook's United Church, which is near London. The Dayfoot family will be attending and enjoying re-uniting with the members of Cook's as Tim was a minister there previously.

The Roast Beef Dinner fund-raiser was a great success. There were many happy diners who enjoyed the meal, the delicious homemade pies and the fellowship of many friends. The organizers Mary Anne Merritt and Nancy Hopkinson would like to thank all the helpers: servers, pie makers, meat carver, cooks, mashers, table setters, dishwashers, door prize suppliers, ticket sellers, drivers who supplied dinners to shut-ins. An evening like this is a fun community event.

The United Church Women's Annual Spring Luncheon is today (May 2) at 12:30 p.m. The guest speaker will be Nobleton's Bev Berger.

The last day for the Photodirectory is this Friday (May 6). If you have not already got an appointment or missed a previous one, please contact Nancy at (905) 859-0761. The photos for this session will be done in Kleinburg in the afternoon and early evening.

On Mother's Day (May 13), Nobleton United will return to its regular Sunday service at 11:15 a.m. There will be a special presentation by Jennifer Atkinson, who visited Belize during her studies at Guelph University. All are welcome.
