709 IN MEMORIAM

In Memory of a loving son and brother,
Kevin Lord, who passed away April 29, 2006
It's been a year since you were here
Life is so empty without you
We miss you so much each day
Our lives are not the same
Since you went away
Though you taught us strength and courage
To continue to live strong
There's not a day goes by we don't ask why
When we think of you and begin to cry
But each time we see your picture
We know you smile and say "Don't cry, I'm in God's keeping We'll be together again someday"
We know you are safe and at rest
And that God proved to us
That he only takes the best
But if tears could build a stairway
And memories build a lane
We would walk right up to heaven
And bring you home again
Love you and miss you terribly,
Mom, Dad, Lindsay B18

Antiques Evaluation Day

Ever wonder what that antique in your home is worth?

Here's your chance to find out.

A company called Treasure Antiques, which has been operating in the GTA since 1992 and catering to senior clients in helping them appraise their heirlooms and antiques, will be holding a special Antiques Day May 11 from 1 until 4:30 p.m. at King City Seniors' Centre. This event is for seniors' centre members only. Bring in any antique and have a professional appraiser give you an opinion as to its value. The cost is only $2.50 per item.

For further information contact Vince Cancelli at (905) 833-6305.

Tickets ($30) are on sale now for the annual Women's Dinner May 10, at 6:30 p.m., with Ed Millar's special dessert to discover. Invite your daughters, neighbours and hairdresser.

On Mother's Day (May 13) at 7:30 p.m., enjoy a beautiful, musical Choral Evensong under Director of Music Michael Leach.

Come and join our hot topic discussion group Sunday mornings, from 9:15 to 10:15 a.m., between services. A 12-minute video starts the conversation flowing, led by Judith Bishop and Leah Springford.

Put in your date-books June 10, Heritage Day — our 150th anniversary community celebration following the Eucharist, with picnic, barbecue, old-fashioned games, bouncy castle and face-painting for the children. Come and look around our old chapel and learn some King City history.

All Saints' Anglican Church is at 12935 Keele St. in King City, a few doors south of King Road. The Eucharist is celebrated at 8 and 10:30 a.m. Sundays, with nursery care and Sunday school at 10:30 a.m., followed by congregational refreshments.

If you know of a need, call the church office, or Rev. Nicola Skinner, at (905) 833-5432, or e-mail to allsaints@eol.ca

Seniors' euchre

Helen Fleury led the ladies in April 20 euchre play at the King City Seniors' Centre with 73 points. She was followed by Joyce Glass and Rita Cancelli (71 points each) and Hilda Fawcett (75). Leading the way for the men was Vince Cancelli (81), followed by Ron Coles (76) and Gord Fawcett (47).

Draw winners were Bob Fleury, Jenifer Merritt and Mary O'Brien.

Thanks was extended to Mila Eigelshoven for providing lunch.

The next euchre session will be May 4 at the seniors' centre, starting at 7 p.m. Refreshments will be served and all are welcome.

Hospice King-Aurora AGM May 11

Hospice King-Aurora's 24th annual general meeting will be next Friday (May 11).

It will be held at Sacred Heart Parish Centre at 14485 Jane St., from 11:30 a.m. until 2:30 p.m.

The guest speaker will be Stephen Jenkinson of the Temmy Latner Centre for Palliative Care, and he will talk about teaching the skills of dying and broken-heartedness. To provide proper care of the dying in a death-phobic culture, we must be engaged in a political, cultural and spiritual revolution.

Come out and explore Jenkinson's challenging and thought provoking approach to palliative care and loss.

A light lunch will be served.
RSVP by May 2 to 905-773-0155.
