

Rhind Electric add two close victories to their total in last week's action

Royal LePage handed the Aurora team a loss, this time by a score of 10-7. King started out on a strong note, scoring six runs in their first three at bats. Josh Baird pitched three solid innings, allowing only two runs.

Rhind Electric (K3) added two more games to their win column this week. They defeated Rotary Club (A3) by a score of 14-11 last Monday.

Matthew Maloney led the way at the plate, with a pair of doubles, a single and a walk. Dylan Love was not far behind. As leadoff batter, he started the game with a double.

Player of the game for Rhind Electric was Matthew Maloney who continues to be a force at the plate.

At home to TD Waterhouse last Wednesday, they played a much closer game that came down to the last batter in the sixth inning.

The game started as a low-scoring affair, with King held scoreless in the first two innings and Aurora scoring one and three runs respectively. Rhind Electric broke the game wide open in the third, scoring the maximum five runs and then adding another three in the fourth. It turned out to be all the runs they would need.

The big hitters of the game were Maloney, with an in-the-park home run, cashing in two RBIs, and Travis

Brinovec, who connected for doubles in consecutive at bats, one from the right side of the plate, and one from the left. Scott Rhind pitched two scoreless innings recording four strikeouts, and relying on his fielders for the other two outs. One was by Brinovec, who made a great running catch on a pop fly in left field, and one by Tyler Burt, tracking down a ground ball in shallow center and making a perfect throw to Stewart Burman at first. Burt took to the mound for the fifth and sixth innings, and once again was helped by his team in shutting down Aurora's attempt at a comeback. Aurora tried to steal second in order to get a runner into scoring position, but catcher Brinovec threw a perfect strike to second baseman Love who applied the tag, ending the inning, and ultimately Aurora's comeback.

Player of the game for Rhind Electric was Travis Brinovec, for his timely hits, and impressive defence.

Diamond Dreams Camp
Mike Mallory, King City Secondary School head baseball coach, echoed the comments of co-camp director Tom Ellison when he thanked the 22 participants of this year's eighth annual Diamond Dreams Baseball Camp for their hard work, and for continuing to send good ball players to his high school program.

The one-week instruction camp produced the following award winners.

Senior Camp
Best Defender — Ryan Forletta; Top Hitter — Josh Lipscombe; Most Improved Player — Brett Cummings; Coach's Award Winner — Armand Sanguini; and Camp MVP — Mateo Perone.

Junior Camp
Best Defender — Jesse Schneider; Top Hitter — Travis Brinovec; Most Improved Player — Francesco Amantea; Coaches Award Winner — Andreas Kentris; and Camp MVP — Joseph Perone and Marshall Perone (co-winners).

Player of the Week
The KTBA Player of the Week Award goes to Daniel Pignataro from the TVS Development Corp Sr. Rookie team. Daniel was perfect at the plate this week and made some key defensive plays. He is the type of player that can be counted on to get a hit, each and every time he comes to bat. Congratulations Daniel.
