

Three Tenors to perform at Marylake Friday for St. Mary Church

Resist the urge to replant every last segment. If it is a special plant, pot some divisions up and trade off with friends and neighbours.

By the by, primulas (Primroses) are best split in June and Iris in July. Perennials that begin their blooming period after the middle of August are best divided in the spring (chrysanthemums, asters and perennial sunflowers). However, if you must move a plant at a less than ideal time, move it as carefully as you can and water it well in its new place. Give it some TLC for a couple of weeks and it should survive, but it will take longer to settle in and reflower; perhaps up to a year.

The Nobleton/King Horticultural Society wishes all a happy and safe Halloween.

St. Mary Catholic Church
St. Mary Catholic Church will be hosting a concert this Friday (Oct. 26).

This is a fund-raising event to take note of with Andrea Garofalo, Peter Marino and Anthony Macri, Canada's Three Tenors. It is to be held at Marylake Shrine in King City.

Tickets are $40 per person, with wine and cheese to be served at 7 p.m., and the concert to start at 7:30 p.m.

Coffee and dessert will be served at intermission.

Call (905) 939-2256 for tickets. Tickets will also be available at mass Sundays.

Seniors' euchre

The winners in Senior's Euchre Oct. 16 were Cathy

Kiebel, Walter Hill, Doris Hill, Bill Groombridge, Peggy Kimber and Hazel Harris.
