Wild will be facing Deseronto this Saturday at home

the 10th-place Nipissing Alouettes Friday.

Though the Wild out shot them 42-22, they ran into a hot Alouette goalie. The Wild goals came from Wicklum, Douglas, Beadow and David Manning.

In the contest, the Wild played well for the first two periods, out shooting Nipissing badly, 37-11, and only trailing 4-3, but then they fell apart in the third period. Chris Stellato was in net for the Wild, only stopping 14 of 22 shots on net.

"If we won on Friday, our two points on Saturday would have jumped us ahead of the Shield," said Friske.

The Wild played a close game in Innisfil Sunday, but they lost 5-3 with an empty net Laker goal coming late in the contest.

Byford played well in net for the Wild, making 46 saves on 51 Laker shots. King had goals from Matt Marchese (assisted by Salituro), Douglas (assisted by Wicklum) and Jon Adams (assisted by Marchese and Beadow), coming on their 42 shots on net.

After the weekend the Wild (18-19-2) are now tied for seventh with the Richmond Hill Rams in the Greater Metro Junior A League standings with 38 points.

They are also one back of the Shield, although they have played five more games than the Rams and two more than Muskoka.

The Wild will be challenged at home Saturday at 8:30 p.m. against the Deseronto Storm, who are in third place with 52 points.

Midgets take the title Red and White tourney

The Schomberg midget rep Red Wings needed overtime, but they ended up winning in the Red and White tournament, which the local association hosted recently.

It all came down to a thrilling final match Sunday evening with the Port Credit Storm. The Schomberg squad, sponsored by Borsa Brothers Excavating, scored after a little more than a minute of play, but their foes tied things up 30 seconds into the third period. The extra frame last only 66 seconds before the champions were crowned.

The Red Wings had things fairly easy in the campaign to reach the finals. They opened the tournament Friday with a 5-1 win over the Erindale Spitfires, then Saturday saw them top their foes from NobleKing 4-1. They secured the place at the championship table Sunday morning with a 4-1 win over the Georgetown Raiders.

Port Credit's road to the finals was a little bit rougher. Things started out well for them, as they blanked the Ajax Knights 3-0, then posted another shoutout in their second match, a 2-0 verdict at the expense of Newmarket. They had a few problems in their third outing, losing 3-0 to the Bradford Bulldogs, but the other two wins were enough to get them in the final game.

It was not a great weekend for the men who travelled north from NobleKing. Their first match was a 1-0 blanking at the hands of Georgetown, but they were able to hold Erindale to 1-1 tie in their final outing of the weekend.
