

*Home Town Girl
Big City
Real Estate*

Louise Auge
Real Estate Broker
(905) 939-9321

Around the Villages

SORA FASHIONS
Ladies', Men's, Children's Wear
Gifts & Accessories

HALF PRICE SALE Continues
on selected items

- Ribkoff • Nygard
- Cartise • Tan Jay
- Picadilly • Alia

and much, much more

Brownsville Junction, Schomberg
Mon-Thurs 9:30am - 6pm Fri 9:30am - 8pm
Sat 9:30am - 6pm Sun 11 am - 5 pm

All Saints' Church will be holding its rummage sale April 12

King's Corners

All Saints' Anglican Church
Submitted by Claire Alexander

All Saints' invites you to celebrate the Eucharist in the Chapel this Sunday (Feb. 24) at 8 a.m. Or, meet in the Church for our family service at 10:30 a.m., followed by coffee hour; a good time to get to know others.

Past and present members of Guiding and Scouting are invited to wear their uniforms to commemorate World Thinking Day, as we enjoy a contemporary service with the band.

This coming Tuesday (Feb. 26), come to the second Lenten church history session at 7 p.m., led by Rev. Canon Jerry Loweth, discussing John Wesley and Methodism, and Archbishop Cranmer and the Prayer Book. March 4 topics will be wartime Anglicanism under Archbishop William Temple, and the modern crisis arising over viewpoints on homosexuality. In case of weather cancellations, please call the church at (905) 833-5432 for a recorded message.

With the rummage sale April 12, now's the time to begin to sort out all your stored sports equipment, games and old dishes. Drop off your boxes during office hours, inside the front Atrium door, off the parking lot. We're sorry we can't accept electronic equipment, such as computers and TVs. Come to help sort Tuesdays, between 9 a.m. and noon.

The Food Bank pick up is this Saturday (Feb. 23) for York Region needs. Drop off cans of coffee and packages of tea for a dozen families, along with canned meats, tuna, salmon, and nutritious staples. Leave items in the cart inside the east (office) door.

This Lent, we are starting our monthly bagel breakfasts for the two youth groups. Those aged 12 and over are invited to come for Bagels and Hot Topic Discussions at 9 a.m. the first Sunday of the month, beginning March 2. Those under 12 start the third Sunday of the month, March 16, at 9 a.m., for Bagels, Games, and Discussions. All are welcome to join us.

Remember that Daylight Saving Time begins early this year, March 9, when the men cook a free breakfast for all takers at 9 a.m., between the services. The smell of fried bread and bacon fills the building. Watch your cholesterol!

We take services of Holy Communion to King City Lodge, Sherwood Court, and York Central Hospital, so please call the church to arrange a visit.

Palm Sunday, Mar. 16, opens a series of special Holy Week and Easter services. If you are going on holiday, find updates on King's Corners at www.kingsentinel.com

All Saints' Anglican Church is at 12935 Keele St. in King City, a few doors south of King Road. The church office is open Tuesday to Friday, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. If you know of a need, contact Rev. Nicola Skinner at (905) 833-5432, or e-mail allsaints@eol.ca. Visit Web site at www.allsaintskingcity.com

King City United Church

Submitted by Donald Fry

The season of Lent is upon us - a time for spiritual discovery. We are offering two study options this year. Pastor Bob will lead a discussion group Friday mornings from 10:30 until 11:30 a.m. Feb 22 and 29, as well as March 7 and 14 in consideration of The Reason for Jesus.

Our second inspirational program will consist of viewing The Gospel of John Sunday mornings from 11:20 a.m. until noon. This will continue to March 16.

We welcome with great joy a new family into our church family; Bob and Kim Heaslip and their son Evan. Please make yourself acquainted with them.

Here's big news - The tickets for our Irish Dinner are now available. It will be March 14, starting at 5:30 p.m. Tickets are $15 each or $25 for a family. The entertainment is now confirmed. It will include a group from Newmarket School of Irish Dance, who will show us their fancy steps; and a group of four from Alliston called Wellington Session, featuring Irish Pipes (Uilleann) with keyboard and violin who will present their Irish songs. Come join us for good food and great Irish entertainment. Call the church office to order your tickets at (905) 833-5181.

Our ladies are busy making turkey pies for sale to the community. These yummys will be available this Saturday (Feb 23) between 10 and 11:30 a.m. at our church. To order, call (905) 833-3003 or (905) 833-5181. The pies are selling for $2.75 each.

Friends of Mildred Manson will be pleased to know she has been released from York Central Hospital. Mildred is now residing at Elginwood, 182 Yorkland St. in Richmond Hill, L4S 2M9, Room 2111. She can be reached at (905) 884-9354. Please be in touch to encourage her as she continues her recuperation.

Any news of our church can be found at jjsmith@sympatico.ca

Please join us for Sunday service at 150 Elizabeth Grove at 10 a.m. with Sunday school and Nursery. Our church office can be reached at (905) 833-5181. Come out, be blessed and be a blessing.

Seniors' euchre

The top player for the ladies at the Feb. 8 euchre evening at King City Seniors' Centre was Dot Cloutier (73 points), followed by Barb Male (69) and Karen Fawcett (50). Leading the way at the men's tables was Cliff Kettlewell (76), followed by Charlie Zammit (72) and Rena Gordon (46).

Draw winners were Anne Warner, Charlie Zammit and Diane Simmonds.

Appreciation was expressed to all those who contributed to the luncheon.

The next euchre evening will be Feb. 22, starting at 7 p.m. Refreshments will be served and all are welcome.

WI lunch and euchre coming

Nobleton Notes

By Angie Maccarone
(905) 859-5174

Food Bank, Children's Clothing Circle open at St. Paul's

Join us this Sunday (Feb. 24) at 11 a.m. as Rev. Dr. Jeff Loach returns to complete his three-part series.

Nursery care (for children five years and younger) is provided during the service and Sunday school for all ages follows at 11 a.m.

The adult Sunday school class is using the Alpha program and they gather for lunch after the video presentation. The Youth Group meets this evening (Feb. 20) at 7 p.m. and the Prayer Group meets at 7:30.

The Thursday morning men's and women's studies continue tomorrow morning at 9:30 a.m.

The Food Bank and Children's Clothing Circle will be open this Saturday (Feb. 23) from 9 to 11 a.m.

The men's Saturday morning study begins at 8:30 a.m.

The Tuesday morning Prayer study continues at 9:30 a.m. and the ladies will be quilting that day, also at 9:30 a.m.

For more information about any of our activities or events, please contact the church office at (905) 859-0843 or visit our Web site at www.stpaulsnobleton.ca

WI hosting luncheon

The Nobleton Women's Institute (WI) will meet tomorrow (Thursday) at Nobleton Community Hall, 19 Old King Rd. at 8:30 pm. Robin Pereira and Darlene Jones are the conveners for the meeting, which will be on the topic of business and industry. The Roll Call will be "What is the best chocolate you have ever eaten?" The Motto will be

"Girls just want to have fun."

We must not forget the luncheon and euchre Feb. 28 at the Vandorf Community Centre at noon, at 14663 Woodbine Ave., in Vandorf. It is to be sponsored by York Centre District Women's Institutes, of which Nobleton is a branch. There will be lunch, door prizes, draw prizes and euchre prizes. For tickets or information, call Mary Anne at (905) 859-0709. Hope to see all you euchre players there. This is a fund-raiser for all the many projects WI participates in during the year.

St. Mary CWL

Feb. 24, there will be an installation of the new executive members of the Catholic Women's League. Everyone on the executive should plan to attend this Mass. For further information, contact the president, Lena Mascarini, at (905) 859-1313.

Gaze at stars on Dufferin Marsh All around Schomberg

Sheep and goats theme of annual farm tour

The Schomberg Agricultural Society will be holding its fourth annual Farm Tour March 8, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The cost of this "drive yourself" tour will be $10 per car.

The map/ticket will give you the directions to each of the sheep and goat operations in the area to be visited.

Tickets may be purchased one week in advance of the tour at the following locations: Rona Cashway Schomberg, Schomberg Farm and Garden Supplies on Main Street in Schomberg, Richvale Saddlery at the Brownsville Junction Plaza, Nobleton Feed Mill on Old King Road in Nobleton, Tottenham Feed Service on Mill Street in Tottenham, Home Hardware in the Tottenham Mall and Maple

Farm Supply in Bolton.

Tickets may be purchased the day of the tour at the Clubhouse on the Schomberg Fairgrounds on Main Street.

Light lunches will be served at the clubhouse.

Star Gazing at the Dufferin Marsh

Check out the night sky over the Dufferin Marsh next Saturday (March 1) from 7 to 9 p.m.

Telescopes will be set up by the learning shelter off Dr. Kay Drive and experts will be there to answer questions. Provided that the sky is clear, we should be able to see Mars and Saturn, as well as a number of galaxies, double stars and nebulae. Bring binoculars and dress warmly. No flashlights please.

Please note, the alternate date, if it is cloudy, will be to following night (March 2).

Happy Times Euchre Club Submitted by Shirley Stonehouse

The top player among the ladies at the Feb. 13 session of the Happy Times Euchre

Club was Peggy Johnston, followed by Mildred Jessop, Margaret Mulgrew and Sandra Doucette. The lucky draw was won by Arlene Bowen, who also took the Carrying Prize.

Leading things at the men's tables was Dan Gould, followed by Blake Coulter, Al Jackson and Murray Kaake. Irene Palmer was the winner of the lucky draw and Blake Coulter took the Carrying Prize.

The 50/50 prize winners were Ken Hodgson and Margaret Mulgrew, and door prize went to Arnold Rodgers.

The Schomberg Lion's Club treated the Happy Times Euchre Club to a wonderful lunch - homemade tomato soup and an assortment of sandwiches (the pickles were great too). Coffee and tea was served as we ate lunch and afterward we were treated to ice cream and desserts. A huge Thank You to the Schomberg Lion's Club from the Executive and membership of the Happy Times Euchre Club.