

Schomberg Street Gallery drew in a big crowd of people

The first ever Schomberg Street Gallery was a great success, as artists displayed their work on Main Street. Cynthia Kubinec was displaying some of her mixed media work.

Photos by David Anderson

Margit Samponga had brought a lot of her watercolour work to show to guests. Councillor Jane Underhill and her husband Jim Wemyss talked with Karen Taylor about her watercolour paintings.

Marianne Broome, who was displaying a variety of her acrylic paintings.

Ron Wild had a large collection of his Digital SmART Maps.

Watercolour artist David Rowdon was discussing art with some members of the public. He is seen here with Max and Gabby Fair and their father Tom.

Firefighters holding carnival Saturday

The King City Firefighters' Association will be holding a carnival this coming Saturday (Oct. 3) in support of Camp Bucko.

It will run from 11 a.m. until 3 p.m. at Wellesley Park, at the northwest corner of King Road and Keele Street. The attractions will include a barbecue, carnival games, rides and treats, a chance to ride in a fire truck and special appearances from several mascots, including Sparky.

Admission will be free.

Located near Minden, Camp Bucko is a fun, safe and caring camp program free to kids ages 7 to 17 with burn injuries, providing an opportunity for these children to meet other kids who share similar feelings and experiences in a camp environment.

GEOHERMAL ENERGY SEMINAR

Questions about geothermal?

Whatever you do, don't wait until it's in the ground.
Ask the right questions up front.

Geothermal Information Seminars

Presented by Quest Geothermal and NextEnergy

Nobleton Arena - Seniors Room
15 Old King Road, Nobleton
October 7th - 7:00 PM

Nottawasaga Inn, Conference Room 19
6015 Hwy 89, Alliston
October 21st - 7:00 PM

Quest Geothermal
www.questgeothermal.com

Contact Quest Geothermal at 905-868-9997 or 1-877-658-9997 for more details.

Wedding Open House

Sunday, October 4, 2009
11 a.m. to 4 p.m.
Caledon Woods Golf Club

Fantastic door prizes
Enjoy a wedding workshop and learn from the experts
Complimentary parking

Grand Prize

- A fabulous ClubLink wedding incentive package including:
- A one-night stay for two at Delta Sherwood Inn, Muskoka
 - $500 booking credit to be applied to your final ClubLink bill
 - Foursome of golf at the property that you choose for your wedding

 Certain conditions apply **

For more information:
905-880-1400 ext. 2326
www.myclublinkwedding.ca/cw

